I really enjoyed the journal-like storytelling from Jennifer and Joe as they traveled the country interviewing people who had indeed "carved their own road." But I particularly loved the inspiring stories from the many independent souls who broke free from jobs they hated to pursue their passion. Eric Yaverbaum's story really resonated with me. So did Robin Sharma's and Holley Henderson's. The insights these passionate individuals provide in this book are invaluable. If you're looking for inspiration and great ideas on how to do what you love -- and make a good living doing it -- this book must absolutely be on your reading list. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Live for your passion! By E. Anderson I heard about this book on CNN one day and the story behind the lives of the authors. The best part is that they give stories of people from ALL walks of life that turned their careers around. It also showed me that by focusing on something other than money, profits and salary, you can be happy. Typically when the people discussed in this book focused on what they enjoyed, the money followed. The same held true for the authors. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great! By MICHELLE WARD Really helpful. Easy read with real life suggestions. I'll be re-reading this book again and again. Taking some positive action every day towards my ultimate goal.

There is an epidemic facing our world today. People everywhere, even those who are successful by most standards, are utterly disconnected from what they really want out of life. We've abandoned our true passions and dreams in exchange for a daily grind that offers no fulfillment. Some estimates say that fully 80 percent of people don't enjoy their work and wish they could exert more control over their lives. Carve Your Own Road offers a powerful process for reconnecting to your dreams and expanding your opportunities. You will receive firsthand insight from people who have successfully made the leap to careers that invigorate and inspire. You'll learn how to:

- * Reconnect deeply with yourself to discover what you really want out of your career.
- * Breathe new life into your days and take action that is in alignment with your vision.
- * Expand your thinking about possibility, finances, success, and fulfillment.
- * Apply the latest advancements in brain research and sports psychology to achieve your goals.
- * Minimize risk and reduce stress while making a major change in your life.
- * Let go and let your career vision evolve while opening yourself up to new possibilities.

Carve Your Own Road also offers stories of dozens of inspiring entrepreneurs and individuals who have done something intimidating to most of us--quit their jobs to pursue a whole new path, one filled with uncertainty and fear...and passion and excitement.
