Celeste Varum, Can Huang, Joaquim Borges Gouveia : China: Building An Innovative Economy (Chandos Asian Studies Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised China: Building An Innovative Economy (Chandos Asian Studies Series):

A comprehensive description of China's innovation system through in-depth analysis of its transformation in the past two decades. The most recent developments are included in order to summarize Chinese experience of reforming its industry and academy sector to meet the challenge of innovation. The discussion is not only centred on the policy and its impact, but goes further to find the logic behind the actions. The book also examines the strengths and weaknesses of China's innovation system in the global context. The book helps RD managers, business professionals and academics grasp an understanding of the new changes in China from the perspective of innovation. It also facilitates policy makers and academics to understand the Chinese experience of building a dynamic and innovative economy. Comprehensive coverage of China's innovation using the national innovation system approach. Includes up-to-date information regarding data, policy reforms and policy impact. Original comparative discussion of China's innovation practice in the global context.
