From Library JournalThe value of career guides is well known to all who must advise high school and college students on the choice of a vocation. This one will meet the needs of young men and women seeking high-income careers as investment bankers, traders, analysts, brokers, venture capitalists. Fein (How To Get Your Child into Modeling and Commercials) describes positions, defines terms, outlines opportunities, enumerates requirements, and narrates success stories in an easy and uncomplicated manner. She points out that the world of finance is one of the toughest, most competitive, and highly specialized to break into. Success is not to be gained without intelligence, hard work, and an MBA.
