Sharon Saltzgeber Wright : Getting Started in Bonds before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Getting Started in Bonds:

"Getting Started in Bonds" is a primer for how to invest in bonds, i.e. fixed income securities. What they are. How they work. The different types. How to use them in your portfolio. What economic factors affect their value. Written to entertain and inform, this daunting subject is made easy to understand with analogies, graphs, and cartoons. The book was first published by John Wiley Sons in 1998 and has been in constant print. Used in financial companies' education programs and in college curriculums, it is also enjoyed by regular folks who want to understand where to invest their money. "Getting Started in Bonds" was used by PBS' "Nightly Business Report" as the basis for programs and a DVD. The author who worked for Fidelity Investments, Putnam Investments, and Lehman Bros, has also appeared on other radio and television programs.

At last, a lucid overview of the fixed income marketplace has been written for the individual investor. IN a light-hearted manner - but based upon solid fundamentals - Ms. Wright has translated the jargon-filled world of bonds into action information. I highly recommend "Getting Started in Bonds" to anyone planning to become involved in fixed income investing." - W. Stanley Carnes, PhD, Managing Director, Fixed Income Research Salomon Smith Barney, New York, 1998 "For do-it-yourselfers who want to invest in bonds, "Getting Started in Bonds" is a fine primer and reference book. Sharon speaks directly to the reader in a personal way, making complex concepts accessible." - Lawrence J Lasser, President CEO, Putnam Investments, 2002
