Lead Like a Woman is a great resource to help women in the world of working. The book helps women understand how to use the skills that come natural to them, being women. We learn how a woman's nature can help to lead and how it has worked against us. The practical guidance comes from experience and that is always the best teacher. And sometimes we help ourselves by learning from the experience of others. So is such a book, to help you help yourself.

Women have been trying for a long time to lead like men which, in my experience, proves unhelpful. This book captures the things that women naturally do which beget success, the things that make women such valuable leaders. Thank you for shining a light on and giving some positive reinforcement for the women leaders of today.

Very practical stuff, touching on all aspects of life - not just how to make it into the boardroom, but building a well-rounded life too. Lots of good advice, but an easy and interesting read, with lots of quotes and anecdotes. I've recommended it to friends.
