From Palgrave Macmillan : Industrial Dynamics in China and India: Firms, Clusters, and Different Growth Paths (IDE-JETRO Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Industrial Dynamics in China and India: Firms, Clusters, and Different Growth Paths (IDE-JETRO Series):

This book is one of the first fully-fledged studies to examine the next world-class industrial leaders emerging from China and India; exploring the domestic and international factors that have led to their rise, and comparing their experiences with other East Asian late-comers such as Japan.

About the Author MORIKI OHARA is Associate Professor in the Department of Economics at Ryokoku University, Japan. He had served as Senior Research Fellow at Institute of Developing Economies, Japan External Trade Organization (IDE-JETRO). MANIMEGALAI VIJAYABASKAR is Assistant Professor at the Madras Institute of Development Studies, India. He has been a Visiting Fellow at the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London and Research Fellow at the International Institute of Information Technology, Bangalore. HONG LIN is Director and Senior Research Fellow at the Shandong Institute for East Asia Studies, China. He has been Vice Director and Professor at the Centre for Japanese Studies, Shandong University.
