Peter Robson : Integration, development and equity: economic integration in West Africa (Routledge Library Editions: Development) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Integration, development and equity: economic integration in West Africa (Routledge Library Editions: Development):

This reissue, first published in 1983, is an authoritative study of economic integration among the states of West Africa, focusing upon the issues and experience of the four main initiatives for regional integration in West Africa, namely the Economic Community of West African States, the Mano River Union, the Communauté Economique de l'Afrique de l'Ouest, and the recent initiative for the establishment of an economic and monetary union between Senegal and the Gambia.
