Daniel Citrin, Ashok Lahiri : Policy Experiences and Issues in the Baltics, Russia, and Other Countries of the Former Soviet Union (Occasional Paper) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Policy Experiences and Issues in the Baltics, Russia, and Other Countries of the Former Soviet Union (Occasional Paper):

This paper reviews the common challenges and key issues in the transition process, including the decline in output and determinants of future growth; the behavior of inflation and velocity and implications for stabilization policy; interenterprise arrears; fixed versus flexible exchange rates in stabilization; external financial assistance; and the political economy of macro stabilization, Russia and the IMF.
