John Miller, Margaret Stacey : Practical Teaching Skills for Driving Instructors: Develop and Improve Your Teaching, Training and Coaching Skills before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Practical Teaching Skills for Driving Instructors: Develop and Improve Your Teaching, Training and Coaching Skills:

Written for both existing and trainee driving instructors, Practical Teaching Skills for Driving Instructors shows how to develop and improve the ability to teach driving as a lifetime skill. The companion title to the popular best-seller The Driving Instructor's Handbook, it offers advice on teaching, communication and coaching skills. Fully revised, it investigates how and why people learn and the different teaching and learning processes involved. With sections on structuring a lesson and problem solving, it also looks at the reasons why people learn to drive and the motivation involved in seeing it through, from early stage lessons to the final practical test. An indispensable guide for all new and established driving instructors, Practical Teaching Skills for Driving Instructors provides all the necessary advice for the conscientious instructor keen to communicate effectively with their pupils.

"Contains all the information you need on how to improve your teaching skills in line with current practices and established criteria." - Approved Driving Instructor Register "Ideal support material to 'The Driving Instructor's Handbook' and gives helpful advice to trainee or new instructors." - Driving Magazine "Not just useful for new entrants to the driver training fraternity, but a source of knowledge on modern, up-to-date skills that could be usefully absorbed by those who have been around a while but need some updating." - John Lepine MBE - General Manager, The Motor Schools Association "About the Author John Miller, Margaret Stacey and Tony Scriven each have more than 25 years' experience in the driver training industry. John and Margaret are also the authors of the hugely successful The Driving Instructor's Handbook, and Margaret is the author of Learn to Drive and The Advanced Driver's Handbook (both Kogan Page).
