"Work Like Your Dog" shows that in order to be more productive at work, you need to add in as much fun as possible. In their book, the authors explain that being unable to tell the difference between what's fun to do and what's work is just the right balance. Human beings work best and most efficiently if they enjoy what they're doing, and if they have fun while getting everything accomplished. In this area, humans should take a lesson from the ways dogs work — with passion, enthusiasm, excitement, energy and joy. This summary will teach you how to bring these elements together in work projects and create an unstoppable powerhouse of achievements.
